TERMS OF USE

GENERAL

Your access to and use of all the services and products of Bank West and its network affiliates described on this site are governed primarily by the terms and conditions of the relevant paper agreements you have physically signed or specific electronic agreements you have signed electronically.

The terms and conditions of these other Agreements and any other conditions or agreements which now or may in the future exist between you and Bank West regarding any Accounts shall remain in full force and effect and shall apply to the relevant product or service you obtain from Bank West, except as expressly modified or supplemented by these Terms of Use in order to take into consideration the additional factor of your use of the website to access the product or service. In the event of an irreconcilable conflict, the terms and conditions of these other Agreements shall supercede the Terms of Use for this website.

We reserve the right to change the information, material and content found in the pages of this site, including these Terms of Use, at any time without notice, by simply updating this site. You agree to review these Terms periodically, and your continued use of this site will tell us that you have agreed to the changes.

OUR RESPECTIVE RESPONSIBILITIES

Although we do our best to make sure this website is always accessible and functioning properly, and contains accurate and up to date information, we are supplying it on an "as is" basis, without warranty of any kind, either express or implied. We cannot and do not promise that the site will always be available and meet your needs, that access will never be uninterrupted, that there will never be delays, failures, errors or omissions or loss of transmitted information, that the software we use will be compatible with your system, that no viruses or other contaminating or destructive properties will be transmitted or that no damage will occur to your own computer system. Please consult our Bank West Winnipeg office for complete and up-to-date information on products and services. Furthermore, it is your sole responsibility to adequately protect and backup your data and/or equipment and to take reasonable and appropriate precautions to scan for computer viruses or other destructive properties on your own system.

We must also warn you that unencrypted e-mail communications over the Internet are not secure (i.e. private) at this time. We strongly recommend that you do not send personal or financial information to us using unencrypted e-mail or a web browser with less than 128 Encryption capability. If your computer doesn't currently have this capability, we urge you to upgrade your web browser to a 4+ Version of either Internet Explorer or Netscape Navigator (Communicator) (a browser with 128 Encryption). This level of technology allows messages travelling back and forth between your browser and our site to be encoded and unencoded at either end so that anyone attempting to intercept the message will not be able to interpret it.

We therefore do not accept liability for your personal or financial information becoming public through no fault of our own if you insist on sending the information to us over the Internet using unencrypted e-mail, or using a web browser with less than 128 Encryption capability.
